FILM SCREENING AND CONVERSATION

CAREGIVING MATTERS:

GENDER, HOSPICE, AND TRANSFORMATION

PRISON TERMINAL: THE LAST DAYS OF PRIVATE JACK HALL

A moving cinema verité short documentary that breaks through the walls of one of America's oldest maximum security prisons to tell the story of the final months in the life of a terminally ill prisoner and the hospice volunteers, they themselves prisoners, who care for him. A Q&A discussion will follow the film as we explore why caregiving is a feminist edict and a universal human attribute.
